

CALL FOR EXHIBITORS

Geomatics 2016 Symposium
October the 19 and 20, 2016
Palais des Congrès

www.geomatics2016.com

The Geomatics 2016 Symposium is intended for private or public sectors managers, professionals, and developers that deal with geo-spatial data. Geomatics is present in every business area, whether it be information technology, finance, marketing, transportation, natural resources or even arts. Geomatics applications have become increasingly important, especially in smart cities and spaces, the gaming industry, the Internet of Things, in short, wherever geolocation matters. Topics about mobile applications, participatory GIS, real time, 3D, even the innovative solutions for business intelligence and analytical will be particularly popular.

Participants will have the opportunity to hear expert speakers that will present their latest achievements, new products or services and share their vision of the Future. As in past years, visitors will be treated to a large commercial exhibition bringing together nearly 50 key hardware, software and services providers..

Showcase yourself, your solutions and services! Reserve your stand today!

COMMERCIAL EXHIBITION SPACE RENTAL CONTRACT

Géomatique
Geomatics
2016

CONTRACT:

Once confirmed, this request for a display site shall constitute a contract between the Exhibitors and the Organizers (GéoMontréal) and, shall include the terms and conditions described on this form. The parties agree that the preliminary floor plan may be revised and modified by the Organizers. To benefit from the reduced rate, the contract and payment must be received by June 30, 2016. The amounts mentioned do not include any federal or provincial sales taxes. An Exhibitor can send the contract by fax to confirm a reservation but display site location will be assigned according to the order in which the signed contracts are received along with the necessary payment.

TERMS OF COMMERCIAL EXHIBIT:

The Exhibitor cannot sublet the display space without the written permission of the Organizers. The Exhibitor agrees that no goods will be brought in or taken out and that the stand will not be dismantled during the commercial exhibit and that the display stand will remain intact until the end of the commercial exhibit, until 4:00 p.m., October 20, 2016. The Exhibitor also agrees to remove its display from the Palais des Congrès within the prescribed time limits, and that, should he fail to do so, will reimburse the Organizers for any additional costs they incur.

CANCELLATION POLICY:

No display space shall be cancelled without appropriate written authorization from the Organizers. No exhibition fees will be refunded after September 23, 2016. Should an Exhibitor whose request has been processed wish to cancel by September 12, 2016, he will be refunded the fees paid minus an amount equal to 15%. If the Geomatics 2016 symposium is cancelled for any reason whatsoever, the Organizers shall have no obligation towards the Exhibitor other than that of refunding the fees paid for a display stand.

EXHIBITOR'S GUIDE:

The Organizers will send the Exhibitor's guidelines explaining the services available during the assembly and dismantling of the stands. This information will also be available at www.geomatique2016.com.

RESTRICTIONS:

The Organizers reserve the right to refuse or prohibit any Exhibitor which, in their opinion, is not relevant or runs counter to the spirit of the symposium or commercial exhibit. They can exclude any display that becomes ineligible or obstructs neighboring displays or other activities. Interviews, demonstrations, and the distribution of documents, products, souvenirs, etc. must take place at the display stand. Direct sales, solicitation of new customers, and the use of advertising materials or symbols by organizations other than those which have rented display space are prohibited. The Exhibitor agrees to ensure that at least one representative will be at the stand at all times during opening hours of the commercial exhibition. The Organizers shall not be liable for any losses, damages or injuries sustained by anyone or affecting any property if such losses, damages or injuries are caused by the Exhibitor or its staff. The Exhibitor shall be liable for any damage caused to Palais des Congrès.

The Organizers shall not be responsible for providing reserved space if the Palais des Congrès should become unavailable because of a fire, force majeure, unforeseen event, strike or any other unforeseen circumstance beyond their control.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONDITIONS:

This contract must be signed and sent with full payment (cheque) at the address indicated on the first page.
